Explanation of the W-2 Wage and Tax Statement

IMPORTANT: A printed Form W-2 from the MyUW System portal (MyUW for UW-Madison users) is a valid document for tax filing. However, you must write your Social Security number or Individual Tax Payer Identification number in the ‘a’ field at the top of each Form W-2 section. In order to increase the security of sensitive information online, any U.S. Social Security or Tax Payer Identification number has been removed from the online statements.

Statement Description

Box 1. Wages, tips, other compensation. Enter this amount on the wages line of your federal tax return. Your taxable wage amount has been adjusted for amounts shown in Boxes 10, 14, and for Code C, E, and G appearing in Box 12. This amount includes taxable imputed income associated with covering non-tax dependents and/or a Domestic Partner on your State Group Health Insurance.

Contributions for the Wisconsin Retirement System (WRS), Tax-Sheltered Annuities (403b) and Wisconsin Deferred Compensation (457) are all deducted on a pre-tax basis for federal and state taxes only. These contributions are not taken pre-tax relative to Social Security and Medicare deductions. This is a contributing factor to the difference between the reported federal and state taxable wages in Boxes 1 and 16, and the reported amount for Social Security and Medicare wages listed in Boxes 3 and 5.

All pretax deductions and taxable deductions indicated on your earnings statements have already been adjusted, such as parking, State Group Health insurance, State Group Life insurance and the Employee Reimbursement Account program.

Box 2. Federal income tax withheld. Enter this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your tax return.

Box 3. Social security wages. This is the wage amount subject to Social Security Tax, up to a maximum of $127,200 (the 2017 maximum Social Security wage base). This amount includes taxable imputed income associated with covering non-tax dependents and/or a Domestic Partner on your State Group Health Insurance.

Box 5. Medicare wages and tips. This is the wage amount subject to Medicare Tax. You may be required to report this amount on Form 8959, Additional Medicare Tax. See Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to complete Form 8959. The wages subject to Medicare Tax are the same as those subject to Social Security Tax (Box 3), except that there is no maximum for Medicare Tax. This amount includes taxable imputed income associated with covering non-tax dependents and/or Domestic Partners on your State Group Health Insurance.

Box 6. Medicare tax withheld. This amount includes the 1.45% Medicare Tax withheld on all Medicare wages and tips shown in Box 5, as well as the 0.9% Additional Medicare Tax on any of those Medicare wages and tips above $200,000.

Box 10. Dependent care benefits. This amount includes the total dependent care benefits that your employer paid to you or incurred on your behalf (including amounts from a section 125 cafeteria plan). Any amount over $5,000 is also included in Box 1. Complete Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to compute any taxable and nontaxable amounts.

Box 11. Nonqualified plans. This amount is (a) reported in Box 1 if it is a distribution made to you from a nonqualified deferred compensation or nongovernmental section 457(b) plan or (b) included in Box 3 and/or 5 if it is a prior year deferral under a nonqualified or section 457(b) plan that became taxable for social security and Medicare taxes this year because there is no longer a substantial risk of forfeiture of your right to the deferred amount.

Box 12. Codes. The following list explains the codes shown in Box 12. You may need this information to complete your tax return. Elective deferrals (Codes E and G) and designated Roth contributions (Codes BB and EE) are generally limited to a total of $18,000. For detailed information on the 2017 limits, see 2017 Maximum Contributions for the Tax Sheltered Annuity 403(b) Program and the Wisconsin Deferred Compensation (Section 457) Program.

Box 13. Checkboxes. The Retirement Plan box will be checked if you were an “active participant” for any part of the year in any of the following: You were paid wages that were covered under the Wisconsin Retirement System (WRS) or you contributed to the Tax Sheltered Annuity 403(b) Program. If the Retirement plan box is checked, special limits may apply to the amount of traditional IRA contributions you may deduct. See Publication 590-A, Contributions to IRAs.

Box 14. Other. This box is used for additional information regarding taxable compensation or reimbursements.

Move - This is the taxable portion of your moving expense reimbursements. Boxes 1, 3, 5 and 16 have been increased by this amount.

Box 16. State wages, tips, etc. This is the amount of wages reported to the Wisconsin Department of Revenue.

Note: Keep Copy C of Form W-2 for at least 3 years after the due date for filing your income tax return. However, to help protect your social security benefits, keep Copy C until you begin receiving Social Security benefits, just in case there is a question about your work record and/or earnings in a particular year.

Notice to Employee

Do you have to file? Refer to the Form 1040 Instructions to determine if you are required to file a tax return. Even if you do not have to file a tax return, you may be eligible for a refund if Box 2 shows an amount or if you are eligible for any credit.

Earned Income Credit (EIC). You may be able to take the EIC for 2017 if your adjusted gross income (AGI) is less than a certain amount. The amount of the credit is based on income and family size. Workers without children could qualify for a smaller credit. You and any qualifying children must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You cannot take the EIC if your investment income is more than the specified amount for 2017 or if income is earned for services provided while you were an inmate at a penal institution. For 2017 income limits and more information, visit www.irs.gov/eic. Also see Publication 596, Earned Income Credit. Any EIC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. Be sure to get your copies of Form W-2c from your employer for all corrections made so you may file them with your tax return. If your name and SSN are correct but are not the same as shown on your social security card, you should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 1-800-772-1213. You also may visit the SSA at www.socialsecurity.gov.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (if such cost is provided by the employer). The reporting in Box 12, using Code DD, of the cost of employer-sponsored health coverage is for your information only. The amount reported with code DD is not taxable.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2017 and more than $7,886.40 in social security and/or Tier 1 railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer and more than $4,630.50 in Tier 2 RRTA tax was withheld, you also may be able to claim a credit. See your Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions and Publication 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.
